

Mo Friends

June 2005

Junior Bluegrass Player, Sara Notte of Fairfield, NJ makes a pitch and a pout that no parent could resist as she pleads for a fiddle she just loved! She's a great player and her new Momentum fiddle will take her far.

*A person Who can See the invisible,
hear the inaudible
and think the unthinkable, can do
the impossible*

Even the customers are beautiful.....

Pennsylvania viola player, Katherine Lista, poses with her new viola which offers her the versatility she's been searching for, excelling as a solo, chamber and orchestral viola!

Papa taint the Papa but he still sure is proud. Here he's wishing Miss Eva all the best just days before the baby's premiere.

Seems a 30 minute lesson is too long for four-week old Baby Emma. Perhaps we'll check back in a few years.

Andrew Freeman's boot – yehaa!